

ROBERT DAVIS, M.DIV, PLPC

Insight is a not-for-profit organization that was formed by MR. Robert Davis in July of 2001. The Mission Statement of Insight is “to provide appropriate forms of ministry to provide appropriate forms of ministry through which family members are enabled to develop personal and spiritual resources and to grow towards increased functional ability, spiritual maturity, and acceptance of responsibility. The mission is accomplished through a variety of retreats and seminars which include P.G.R., Spiritual Growth Retreats, Marriage Enhancement Retreats, Teen P.G.R., and Reclaiming the Inner Child.

Robert Davis has always been a highly motivated and personable individual. In 1971 Robert broke the all-time scoring high school record in football in Virginia while scoring 188 points in one season. Robert held this state record for fourteen (14) years. Robert continued to set records and in 1975, Robert became the first player to ever rush for more than a 1,000 yards at Missouri Southern State College, now Missouri Southern State University. Robert was later inducted into the Missouri Southern State Universities Athletic Hall of Fame, in 2000.

After graduating MSSC, with a Bachelor degree in General Studies, Robert then on to received his Master’s degree in Divinity from Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City Missouri, in 1981. After severing as the Pastor for several churches, Robert felt lead to join the Navy as a Chaplin in 1985. Robert retired from the Navy after fourteen years holding the rank of Lt. Commander.

During the years of 1994 to 1996 Robert held the position of Division Officer for the Chaplains Religious Enrichment Development Operation (CREDO). CREDO was originally set up during the Vietnam War to deal with the drug and alcohol problems of Navy personnel. CREDO has often been referred as the Navy’s best kept secret. Robert has taken this information, extensive Navy training and his schooling from John Brown University to expand his knowledge in order to help returning soldiers from Iraq as well civilian Adults and Teens that are in need of help.

Robert returned to school to receive the credentials to go along with his years of experience and graduated from John Brown University with a Master Degree in Community Counseling and in Marriage and Family. Robert has passed and has received his PLPC in the state of Missouri.

Since January 2009, he has been volunteering his counseling services at Christian Alcoholics & Addicts in Recovery, CAAIR, in Jay Oklahoma. CAAIR now has over one hundred (100) men in recovery, which chose long term recovery over jail time, through the Oklahoma Drug Courts in over Twenty-Two (22) counties.

Robert's work at CAAIR, through CREDO in the Navy, and his Personal Growth Retreats with INSIGHT has given him a vision and passion of a recovery house in the four state area.
